THE COVER

Bunnies seem to go with April even if Easter comes early as it did this year. That's why we asked "Charlie" to pose for this picture, taken by Mary Ellen Hopper of the Medical College faculty. A most unusual rabbit for his age (six months), Charlie is both thoroughly educated (he digests The Times every day) and house-broken, his owner, Ruthye Lesser of Dr. Barr's secretarial staff, assures us.

Notes from The Director's Office

If we all seemed to be particularly busy during 1950, there is a good reason: 1950 was a record year of service, as revealed in the Annual Report, shortly to be published. Some of the information in this report may be of interest to you.

For example, in-patient admissions numbered 27,272, a figure 4.5 per cent higher than the previous record established in 1949. An increase of 4 per cent in linen laundered paralleled the increase in patient load. Our 318,400 days of patient care also constituted a new record. The 14,092 operations performed in 1950 represented an increase of more than 6 per cent over the previous high. This was due primarily to early post-operative ambulation which in turn reduced the average length of hospitalization and permitted a more rapid turnover of patients. Indeed, the average length of stay decreased from 12.5 days in 1949 to 12.3 days in 1950. While clinic visits and the number of new patients admitted declined in the Out-Patient Department, the number of patients treated rose by 3.5 per cent.

Some of the other departments which recorded increases in their services were E.K.G., 21 per cent; X-ray, 3.4 per cent; Central Laboratories, 7.1 per cent; Anesthesia, 12 per cent; Surgical Pathology, 12 per cent; and Emergency, 4 per cent. Only the stork let us down, calling on us 3,933 times or 151 fewer than in 1948, which was the record year.

We are proud of this increase in our contributions to the health of the community, especially since it was achieved with little change in our roster of personnel.

Great credit and thanks are due everyone, particularly those of you who have given unselfishly of your time and effort beyond the normal course of your duties. With anticipated personnel shortages in the latter part of the current year due to defense mobilization, we cannot expect early relief, but we can have a sense of individual accomplishment and pride in our unremitting efforts to provide the best possible care for our patients.

Henry N. Pratt, M.D.

We Lose Some Good Friends...

THE PULSE records with great sorrow the untimely passing of four members of the Center staff.

Alexander R. McDonald, chief electrician of NYH, died Feb. 21 at home following an early morning heart attack. He had been on the job the day before. Mr. McDonald's death marked the end of more than 18 years of loyal service to the Hospital.

Dr. Hervey C. Williamson, attending obstetrician and gynecologist, and clinical professor of obstetrics and gynecology at the Medical College, died Feb. 2 after a short illness. Dr. Williamson had been a member of the College faculty since 1917. He was a former president of the New York Obstetrical Society, a member of the American College of Surgeons, and a Diplomate of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Lucille White of M-3, a member of our nursing staff since 1942, died here

Dr. Edmund Ezra Day, president emeritus of Cornell University, died of a heart attack during an automobile ride in Ithaca on March 23. He was the father of our Dr. Emerson Day.

Dr. Day, who had suffered from a heart ailment for some time, was president of Cornell from 1937 to 1949. He resigned this position in June, 1949, because of ill health and became the University's first chancellor, serving until Jan. 31, 1950. Dr. Day initiated many projects during his presidency which contributed to the University's expansion and world-wide reputation.

A frequent visitor to the Center, Dr. Day had been a member of the Joint Administrative Board and the Council of the School of Nursing. It was during his presidency of Cornell that our School of Nursing became a part of the University.

COMING CENTER ATTRACTION

This is an architect's drawing of the new home of the Hospital for Special Surgery which will rise on the plot between 70th and 71st Street, facing the East River, as soon as general conditions and government regulations permit. The eight-story structure will be of glazed brick and limestone, its six bed floors designed in a "V" shape so that all in-patients may have a river view. It will have 170 beds and facilities for an annual load of 90,000 out-patients; tunnels will connect it to the Center. Title has also been taken to land between 71st and 72nd Streets on the East River Drive for any future expansion. The oldest orthopedic hospital in the country, the Hospital for Special Surgery was founded in 1863 and was formerly known as the Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled. It is presently located on East 42nd Street in Tudor City.

It's Greater N. Y. Fund Appeal Time

Within the next week or so, one of your co-workers will ask you to contribute to the Greater New York Fund which helps us and 422 other health and welfare agencies in the metropolitan area. The Fund's annual drive will be launched April 24 and continue through June 3. This is the only solicitation during the year when each employee is asked to give to an organized campaign for the benefit of the community.

Last year, through the generosity of all of us, the Center's contribution to the Fund totaled $2,770.84.

Two years ago we led all hospitals in the group employee drive. Last year, we were second to Columbia-Presbyterian in amount raised and in third place, behind St. Luke's and Mt. Sinai, by a few pennies in per capita giving. Both in 1949 and 1950 we received a Citation for Meritorious Service — but we want to get back into first place again in the Hospital Division of the Fund.

If each of us gives  $\frac{1}{4}$  of one day's pay, we should be able to exceed our generous 1950 gift to the Greater New York Fund.

Members of The New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center campaign committee are: Thomas S. Adams, Jr., Norman N. Baker, Doris Bresnahan, George W. Curtin, Philip A. Edholmes, Alice T. Ivson, Vassar W. Johnson, John F. Kenney, Helen B. Lincoln, George J. McBride, Dora Mark, Sherwood A. Messner, Helen V. Miller, Robert C. Morris, Louise Stephenson, Edward K. Taylor, Cathleen Tooley, and Richard G. Walke, with Laurence G. Payson as chairman.

Departmental chairmen include Frieda

Mayor To Speak
On Charter Day

The Honorable Vincent R. Impellitteri, Mayor, City of New York, will be chief speaker at Charter Day exercises of the Hospital to be held on Tuesday, May 8, at 5 P.M. in the auditorium of the Nurses' Residence. As you know, this year the Hospital is celebrating its 180th anniversary.

Another speaker will be Dr. Frank Glenn, surgeon-in-chief of the Hospital. No further details were available about the program at press time.

EDITOR'S NOTE: With this regular issue of THE PULSE we inaugurate a special column to keep you up-to-date about the Center's program of preparedness.

COURSES: Eighteen department and assistant department heads will complete a 22-hour Red Cross first aid course, given by Mr. Malloy, on April 23. Those who will receive certificates are: the Misses Bessie A. R. Parker, Helen Campbell, Blanche Fernbach, Veronica Lyons, Theodate Soule, Victoria Ibbotson, Helen R. Lincoln and Mary T. McDermott; the Mesdames Virginia Kinzel, Margaretta Treherne-Thomas, and Margery T. Overholser; L. G. Payson, William Walton, Sherwood A. Messner, Vassar W. Johnson, Norman Baker, George Curtin and Thomas Houran.

Four attendants on the night staff have also completed a course with Frederick D. Kelly, a Civil Defense volunteer. They are: Mildred Deane, H-6; Doris Blanding, G-4; Mary McBride, F-7-E; and Regina Stewart, H-8.

In preparation for teaching first aid courses at the Center, the following are presently taking instructor's courses at the headquarters of New York Chapter, Red Cross: Mrs. Wenche Lunder, Betty Saunders and Hans Hillander, Physiotherapy; Ann Brandt and Margaret Gwinn, Social Service, and Edward R. Browne, Supervisor of Orderlies.

HOSPITALS

Heard and Seen Dept.: Kathleen M. Newton, head of OPD nursing, represented the Nursing School and Hospital at a career conference on nursing, a feature of a TV program written and directed by teen-agers, on WPIX Saturday, March 10. . . . Dr. Helen Walbridge, a retired physician, who has given more than 5,000 hours as a volunteer doing clerical work in Lying-In OPD, was saluted as "Woman of the Week" on the "Portia Faces Life" program on WNBC Feb. 8. . . . Dr. August H. Groeschel, assistant director of NYH, took part in a vocational round-table panel on professions in medical fields for high school seniors sponsored by the New York City Department of Education, on WNYC Feb. 14.

Shamrock Shenanigans: G-6 really went all out for the Irish on St. Patrick's Day this year. George Haderer and the other polio patients took over the OT shop on the 14th floor for one of the gayest parties the Hospital has seen in a long time. The patients themselves planned the party, to which only patients and staff, including the "big wheels," were invited, making a total of about 60 people. The father of one of the patients provided the entertainment which consisted of a singer, a comedian, a magician and an accordionist. Refreshments, including a special holiday cake, ice cream and coffee, were furnished by the Hospital. Mrs. Blanche Scala of OT did a fine job of decorating the premises.

Here and There: A check for $25,000 was presented to the Hospital in February by the Muscular Dystrophy Association, bringing the amount given by this group to $44,000 in the past year. The money, to be used for research in the disease, was presented by George Godfrey, one of four brothers afflicted with the muscular disease. . . . Among the interesting student groups who have toured the Center recently were a party from Columbia University School of Journalism, guided by Dr. Stanhope Bayne-Jones and Dr. David P. Barr, and one each from the Lexington School for the Deaf and the Bronx High School of Science, these guided by Mrs. James Husted, a volunteer in Public Relations.

. . . Another interesting visitor was Miss Natsue Inoue, president of the Japanese Nurses' Association. . . . David Ferguson is the new chief electrician, succeeding the late A. R. McDonald. . . . Irene Young, formerly Dr. Groeschel's secretary, is doing a "Grover Whalen" these days in her new job as official greeter of patients visiting the Out-Patient Department. Our assistant director's new secretary is Marie Fitzgerald, who hails from Albany. . . . Vera R. Keane has been named to the nursing supervisory staff of Lying-In with particular responsibility for teaching classes for prospective mothers. She was formerly on the staff of Metropolitan Hospital and School and the Visiting Nurse Service of N. Y. . . . We are glad that Leno Grillo, chef of Main Kitchen, is back to his pots and pans after a recent operation.

MORE OF A GOOD THING

At Christmastime, the decorations done by polio victim, Jo Chasin, on the walls of the L-3 therapy pool where he comes for treatment, made the headlines.

The decorations were so amusing and original that no one wanted to wipe them off. But Santa began to look a bit out of place with Spring in the air, even in a tropical setting, Mr. Chasin thought. So again he capped a piece of chalk to the window pole and kneeling in the pool, transformed the motif from Christmas to Easter. Physio-therapy student Blanche Andrews colored the sketches.

Instead of Santa, a smiling rabbit in a jaunty chapeau now holds the reins of the fish-drawn sleigh. That impertinent fellow, "Bugs Bunny," is shown lounging under a palm tree, munching a carrot. An Easter lily and a newly hatched chick complete the pool's Spring decorations.

Congrats: To Mrs. Margaretta Treherne-Thomas on her recent article in "Modern Hospital" magazine entitled "Treating the Volunteer on a Professional Basis," in which she describes the Volunteer Department at NYH. . . . To Rosalind MacLean, instructor in nursing arts in the Nursing School, who won the $50 cash prize at the Committee on Scholarships Bazaar. The money, in five ten-dollar bills, was presented to her as trimming on a mauve spring bonnet. . . . To Dr. Horace S. Baldwin, who is the newly elected president of the American Academy of Allergy. . . . To Dr. Carl Muschenheim, who has been named chairman of the Tuberculosis Committee of the N. Y. Tuberculosis and Health Association. . . . To Dr. Ephraim Shorr, who has been elected vice president of the newly incorporated New York State Society for Medical Research, Inc., a non-profit corporation organized "for the protection and advancement of the medical sciences in the State of New York" . . . To Audrey McCluskey, who has been appointed to the newly created position of assistant head of the Medical Nursing Service. Formerly a supervisor in the Medical Nursing Service, she continues as an instructor on the Nursing School faculty. . . . To Marian F. Willet, formerly head nurse of the Vincent Astor Diagnostic Service, who has been appointed to the new positions of assistant supervisor, Medical and Surgical Out-Patient Nursing Service, and assistant in Medical and Surgical Out-Patient Nursing. Awarded a $500 grant from the Irene Sutcliffe Scholarship Fund, established by and for alumnae of the School of Nursing for post-graduate study, she will study full time at N.Y.U. in the Fall to complete work on a Master's Degree.

Cigar Passing Dept.: Richard Brown Maxwell III, weight 8 lbs. 6 oz., arrived Feb. 24. His parents are Dr. Richard B. Maxwell, Jr., assistant resident in Medicine, and the former Helen Plyler of the Secretary's office. . . . Norman Baker, chief pharmacist, became a father for the second time on Feb. 10. His daughter's name is Christine Amie, weight 9 lbs. . . . Percival Ellegor, pharmacy helper, also has a new daughter, born Feb. 24; her name is Cheryl Carla and she weighed 7 lbs. . . . Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Artusio are the proud parents of twins, born March 3. The girl weighed 5 lbs. 3 oz., the boy, 5 lbs. 7 oz. . . . Dr. and Mrs. George Knauer have a daughter, a 6-pounder, born March 13. Mrs. Knauer is the former Barbara Brokaw, Class of '45, Nursing School. . . . Bruce and Audrey Merrill are the proud parents of a daughter born March 20, weighing 7 lbs. 3½ oz. The father is a 3rd-year med student, and Mrs. Merrill, the former Audrey Teufel, was head nurse on H-5.

Cupid's Capers: Dr. John McCormick, assistant resident in Anesthesia, will wed Jean Foley of Great Neck in June. . . . Dr. Howard A. Britton, assistant resident in Pediatrics, will be married June 30 to June E. Madowsky, a nurse from Somerset, Mass. . . . Sally Finks, head dietitian in the Garden Dining Room, is sporting a diamond; her fiancé's name is Harry Blum. . . . Joan Sexton of Pavilion Admitting, is engaged to Peter Connolly, a serviceman. . . . Dr. Morton Bogdonoff, formerly of the house staff, now with the U. S. Public Health Service, is engaged to Jane Segal of Deal, N. J. . . . Jane Henderson, '51, Nursing School, is engaged to Robert Mohr. They'll be married in the summer. . . . Joan McCarty, senior class president, will marry Gene Gyurko, a second looie, in the Fall. . . . Dorothy Martinson, dietitian in the Nurses' Residence, will marry Robert Duval Kroeger on April 21. Thornton Stearns, 1st year med student, will be best man. . . . Fred Flach, 4th year med student, is engaged to Patricia Anne Kane of this city. . . . Julie Miller Fox, nurse in Dr. S. W. Moore's office, was married March 19 to Robert Roger Carlson. . . . Elizabeth Coyne, nurse in charge of Nichols Cottage, Westchester Division, married Dr. Alexander Carlen of Payne Whitney Clinic, formerly of Westchester, on Feb. 7.

NURSING SCHOOL NOTES

Vivian Gerhold, '51, and Jean McCormack, '52, attended a meeting in Albany recently at which plans were made for the formation of a N. Y. State Student Nurses Association. . . . A date to circle on your calendar — April 28 — the annual Senior-Junior Prom. . . . The Senior-Junior Varsity Show has been called off because of all sort of trials and

NUPTIALS IN NEWARK

When William Baum of the Print Shop and his fiancée, Ruth Widman, took the day off on Feb. 14 to go over to Newark to be married, it never occurred to them that there would be something special in store for them. When they appeared at City Hall for the license, however, they learned that as the first couple to be married in the city on St. Valentine's Day, all sorts of good things awaited them. First, a representative of Browning-King, clothiers, presented the groom with a new suit. Then, they were whisked off in a car to the Mayor's home where Hizzoner performed the ceremony and gave them a special license. The festivities were made even kayer by the fact that the couple's attendants, Mr. Baum's brother and sister-in-law, and the Mayor discovered that they were fellow-members of the Lambs Club. The bride, formerly of Surgical Follow-Up here, is now assistant record librarian at Bronx Hospital.

tribulations. Thanks are in order for those who showed an interest. . . . "Professional Secrecy" was the discussion topic at the March meeting of the Newman Club. . . . The Freshmen are now clinical students, entitled to full privileges.

FROM OUR COUNTRY COUSINS

"Can She Bake a Cherry Pie?": Mrs. Isadora Anshutz, chief dietitian at Westchester Division, was hostess to students and faculty of the New York State Institute for Applied Arts and Sciences in White Plains and the director of the White Plains Lunch Program at a baking session in the Hospital kitchens recently. With the cooperation of the Hospital's head baker, Victor Bower, a demonstration of some newly developed products was given by a representative of a baking company. The hospital's culinary staff participated in the lively pro and con discussion that followed.

From One Hospital to Another: Dr. James H. Wall, medical director, was the speaker at the Scarsdale Golf Club luncheon meeting of the Scarsdale Woman's Auxiliary of the White Plains Hospital on March 15. He talked about the newer methods of detection of emotional disorders and some of the special psychological problems of aging, of childbirth and of various kinds of inter-personal relationships. . . . The March, 1951, issue of the Club Dial, a monthly publication of the Woman's Club of White Plains, carried an article, "Psychiatry in Action" in which Dr. Wall gave some of the interesting historical background as well as current information about the Hospital.

Welcome: Barbara Ward Knight, born at The New York Hospital recently, is the daughter of Dr. Robert Knight, resident at Westchester Division, and Dr. Mary Middlebrook Knight, formerly an assistant resident.

Modern Psychiatry — A Radio Series: On the fourth Wednesday of every month, Westchester Division goes on the air over Westchester County's Station WFAS to discuss some phase of its activities or some aspect of psychiatry. These programs are in interview form, a physician or department head being interviewed by Mrs. Marion M. Miller, who has charge of the public relations work of the Westchester Division.

April in Paris: Claire Dufault, art teacher in the Women's Occupational Therapy Department, is spending April in Europe. Flying to England, she will also visit France, Switzerland and Italy.

First Aid Instruction: Ellen Phelan, director of the Women's Physical Education Department, is giving valuable community service by teaching First Aid one evening a week at Red Cross Headquarters in White Plains. Her present class numbers 27 students.

Here and There: Jo-Anne Quackenbush, assistant director of the Occupational Therapy Department of Payne Whitney, recently brought four O.T. students to the Westchester Division to visit the Occupational Therapy Department. . . . Four new television sets have been installed on various services and are greatly enjoyed by patients. . . . An Easter dance, sponsored by the Nurses' Social Committee, was held March 30 at the Student Nurses' Residence. Nursing staff, doctors and office personnel attended. . . . Marion Donahue has returned to the nursing staff after her marriage in January to V. Compiglione.

FIGARO, FIGARO . . .

Our Barber Shop Trio is caught in action as Dr. Abraham Mazur of the Medical College faculty gets a haircut from Ernest Ricciardelli while Mike Cirone shines his shoes. Albert Mancusi works on another customer in our two-chair shop.

Tired of discussing politics and horses or settling the world situation every time you take a haircut or a shave? Then patronize our Hospital Barber Shop, Room F-162, where only such innocuous subjects as the toughness of your beard, the weather, etc., are topics for discussion.

Our barber shop is a cheerful, white-tiled room with two chairs, operated by Ernest Ricciardelli, Ernest, who has been with us for three years, and his assistant, Albert Mancusi, have the job of keeping the Hospital's patients as well as the staff neatly groomed. Mike Cirone, the genial shoe shine man, also uses the barber shop as his headquarters, and is on call there from 9 to 5:30.

Another good reason for patronizing our barber shop is the prices: 75¢ for a haircut; 35¢ for a shave; 25¢ for all tonics. Where else in town can you do better?

Among the more well-known of Ernest's clients have been former Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr. and Paul V. McNutt.

In his role as hospital barber, Ernest is frequently called on to be a philanthropist. Never one to let a man go unshaven, even when he can't afford to be neat, Ernest donates his services to patients who can't pay. Furthermore, he often gives free shaves and haircuts as door prizes at functions of the Medical College. And among the most important awards at parties on the children's floors are free haircuts for the young winners.

So next time your mane gets shaggy or your "five o'clock shadow" comes ahead of time, drop in to F-162 for expert work — and business-like conversation.

CENTER STAFF DEATHS

Feb. 2 after suffering a fractured skull from a fall in her apartment.

Mrs. Ella Hawkins, one of the registrars in Private Admitting, died suddenly in the early hours of March 30 of a cerebral accident. She was stricken at home and was brought to the Hospital. Mrs. Hawkins' death was a great shock to her co-workers, since she had been on the job the day before. She had been a member of the Hospital staff since 1947.

Medical Alumni
Set Weekend Reunion

Instead of the customary one-day reunion, alumni of Cornell University Medical College will have a weekend get-together at the Center on Friday and Saturday, April 20 and 21.

Dr. E. Cooper Person, '35, is chairman of the Alumni Weekend which will feature special scientific exhibits to show the current research and teaching work at the College, presentation of the 1951 Award of Distinction to an alumnus for outstanding achievement, a tea for wives, clinics and grand rounds, a business session, and a banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria. Special guest speakers will include Dr. Harry Gordon, professor of pediatrics at the University of Colorado and Dr. William Holden, professor of surgery at Western Reserve University.

CIVIL DEFENSE NEWS

Ten of our nursing supervisors will shortly complete a four-week course in "Nursing in Atomic Disaster," given in the Nurses' Residence under the auspices of the Committee on Nursing Services for Civil Defense of the Health Council of Greater New York. The instructor is Virginia C. Dericks, supervisor of surgical nursing. Her pupils include Edna Fritz, Dorothy McMullan, Elizabeth Harmon, Jeanette Walters, Ethel M. Tschida, Ruth Woodfall, H. Rosalind MacLean, Virginia Daniels and Mrs. Mildred Gilpatrick.
